

BC Assessment's CEO Receives Honourary Designation

At the Appraisal Institute of Canada's 2010 national conference in Victoria, Connie Fair, President and CEO, was presented with a honorary designation. The honour was first announced in 2009. This is a prestigious honour as stated here by the AIC.

The objective of the Institute's honorary designation program is to identify individuals who are ethically above reproach; publicly recognized as leaders in business, law, academia, and other professions; and who contribute to the AIC's advancement of the profile, respect, body of knowledge, and advocacy of the valuation profession.
