

Privacy Protection in Assessment Roll and Records

BC Assessment provides protection of privacy options if you have reasonable grounds to believe that your safety or mental or physical health, or that of a resident or a member of your household, may be jeopardized by the inclusion of particular information as it appears on the Assessment Roll.

For further information, you may contact either the Office Supervisor in your local area office or BC Assessment's Information Disclosure and Privacy Analyst by way of e-mail to Sarah Bonner or telephone (250-595-6211 local 282).
